London, Jan. 7.—England's reply to Washington's remonstrance against British interference with American shipping will be altogether conciliatory according to official announcements which apparently all danger of war between the two nations has disappeared. England is willing to make all concessions which deems not a direct conflict with the interests of the allies, although it is believed she will not push the right to search American ships under exceptional circumstances.

MAY INCREASE PRICE OF BREAD

Columbus, Jan. 7.—Bakers are continuing raising the price of bread a loaf, an increase of 10 cents, it became known today, as of the advance in the price of wheat and flour. Wholesale flour is up to $7.50 a barrel, and 50 cents to 50 cents during the last week.

BA TOBACCO CROP RUINED

Washington, Jan. 7.—The heavy, sudden rains of the last which culminated in a terrible downpour last night, complete destruction of the tobacco crop in almost all sections of the state. A cane also was injur-lumber to be shipped to England.

BIG ORDER FOR CARS

Min., Jan. 7.—According to an announcement made by the Ohio railroad commissioners, have been placed eight cars involving an amount of between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000. It is said the railroads will let a contract for 8,000 freight cars.

INAUGURATION CANNONS WILL NOT BOOM ON CAPITOL SQUARE

Columbus, Jan. 7.—Plate glass windows in office buildings fronting the capitol square will be respected next Monday noon, when the salute of seventeen guns will be fired at a moment after Gov. Willis takes the oath of office. Two years ago they were fired in the state house yard and scores of windows were broken. This year Battery C, under command of Major H. M. Bush, of Columbus, will take its guns to the east bank of the Scioto river, two squares from the capitol. Members of the signal corps will signal when the last word of the oath has been spoken.

Decorating of the capitol with flags, bunting and evergreen vines had been nearly completed today. Carpenters were at work on the reviewing stands in Broad street bordering the capitol square and the platform and seats on the west steps of the state house where inaugural ceremonies will occur. Arrangements were being made today for outgoing officers to greet the newly elected officials when departments change hands Monday.

A judge of the supreme court will administer the oath of office to all new officers.

The state house had the appearance of "moving day" today, though the change of administration does not actually come until Monday.

The departments of the executive, secretary of state, treasurer, attorney general and adjutant general particularly were busy

Will Ask England To Make Reparation In Shooting Of Hunters

Washington, Jan. 7.—State department officials today began preparing a note to Great Britain asking reparation for the families of Charles Dorsell and Walter Smith, the two Americans fired upon by Canadian troops while duck hunting in the Niagara river. The representations which will be transmitted the British embassy this week will also ask, it is understood, that the Canadian troopers be punished. Evidence has been presented to the department that they shot to kill.

ANNOUNCE OPEN SHOP

Bellair, Jan. 7.—Announcement was made here today that the Youngstown and Ohio Coal company, the Rail and River Coal company and the United States Coal company would next week offer employment to their 5,500 striking men on an open shop basis.

Those of the miners, it was said, who would refuse to go to work would be evicted from the houses they have completed since last April without paying rent, to make room for the non-union men, who it is stated, are to be imported if necessary.

Strike Conciliations Open Investigation

Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 7.—Hywel Davies, one of the representatives of the United States Department of Labor, appointed by Secretary of Labor Wilson, to make an investigation of the Eastern Ohio coal strike with a view to bringing about a settlement, arrived in Cleveland today. This afternoon he is to confer with Walter R. Woodford, president of the Ohio coal operators' association.

"I have formulated no plans," said Mr. Davies. "After I confer with Mr. Woodford I likely will have some information with reference to the operators' side of the controversy. Just where I will go next, or how long I will be here I am unable to say," he added.

Whether Daniel J. Keefe, the other appointee of Secretary Wilson, will come to Cleveland from Indianapolis, where he is today to confer with international officers of the United Mine Workers of America, Mr. Davies said he did not know. "Both Mr. Keefe and myself begin this investigation with open minds," Mr. Davies said.

New York, Jan. 7.—Roswell Morse Shurleff, 76, widely known American artist, died suddenly today.

SHADES OF 1861! NORTH & SOUTH HAVE ARGUMENT

Washington, Jan. 7.—Senate amendments to the immigration bill proposing to bar negroes evoked a storm of debate in the house today when the bill was taken up for consideration of the differences between the two houses. Northern and Southern members lined up in a regular old time stormy color line debate, the former as a rule attacking the amendment and the latter defending it. The amendment was rejected 252 to 75. The disagreement will go to conference.

Arrange For Canal Opening

Washington, Jan. 7.—President Wilson expects his trip to the Panama Canal, the San Diego and the San Francisco Exposition and his speaking tour afterward to last from March 5 to May 1. He told callers today he planned to be away from Washington for that period unless public business necessitates his presence here.

Detailed plans for the formal opening of the canal were considered at a conference today. Mr. Wilson now has before him a tentative program for the opening drawn up under the direction of Secretaries Bryan, Garrison and Daniels.

"Dry" Bill Before Idaho Legislature

Boise, Idaho, Jan. 7.—A bill prohibiting by constitutional amendment the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor in Idaho was introduced in the legislature yesterday.

DOES A CRYING BABY KNOW OWN MOTHER?

Columbus, Jan. 7.—Governor Cox has been subjected to an unusually large number of appeals for pardons and clemency by friends or relatives of penitentiary prisoners during the last days of his administration.

A young woman carrying a crying baby appeared at the governor's office today to ask pardon for her husband, serving time in the prison. The baby yelled so vociferously that the woman finally returned it to another young woman who had accompanied her. The child became quiet immediately. Now attendants at the governor's office are wondering whether the baby was borrowed for the occasion to assist in creating sympathy.

TRIANGLE IN SENSATIONAL SUIT

ALTHOUGH NEUTRAL, SECRETARY ANSWERS GERMANY'S CHARGE

Washington, Jan. 7.—Secretary Bryan today informed Count Bernstorff, the German ambassador, that the United States, in maintaining strict neutrality, must refrain from officially investigating or commenting upon his charges that dum-dum bullets were being furnished from this country to the allies.

Secretary Bryan told the ambassador, however, that if he could furnish proof that forbidden war materials were being shipped by American firms, President Wilson would use his influence to stop the traffic without involving legal or international question.

In a letter to Count Bernstorff, British government in the use of dum-dum bullets.

"I can assure your excellency that I am not unmindful of the spirit in which you bring to the attention of this government the improper practices which are alleged to have occurred in the conduct of the present war. But, while this government may take these statements and charges under consideration, it is in its effort to maintain a strict neutrality.

77 SUBWAY VICTIMS STILL IN HOSPITALS

New York, Jan. 7.—Seventy-seven victims of yesterday's subway accident were still in hospitals today recovering from their injuries. Most of them were men, some were women who had been maimed in the stampede for the great. All suffered from the effects of smoke or bristles or cuts. They were the ones who had fared worst in the panic. None was expected to die, all, it was thought, would be discharged within a day or two.

The death list of what was first believed to be a great disaster remained at one.

How many persons were carried unconscious from the smoke filled tube to the street, probably will never be definitely established as some of the victims did not go to hospitals and their names were not recorded.

There were more than 700 men and women wedged tight in the cars at the time and estimates of the injured run up to more than 200.

Traffic on all subway lines, halted for hours after the accident and resumed to some extent last night was again normal at the morning rush hour today.

Huntington Woman Is Held For Murder

Huntington, W. Va., Jan. 7.—Mrs. Emma Newton, wife of Jas.

COX COMMUTES SENTENCE OF TOLEDO BOY

Newton, Wayne county farmer, who was shot and killed in his home on New Year's Day, was arrested here today, charged with having murdered her husband. A coroner's jury, on the day of Newton's death, held that the shooting was accidental, but later developments convinced the Wayne county authorities that Newton was murdered following a family quarrel.

Columbus, Jan. 7.—Governor Cox today commuted to 10 years the life sentence of Don Harvey Hazel, Toledo boy, who killed his mother in 1908 and was sent to the penitentiary for murder in the first degree. The boy will be released in June.

Hazel is 24 years old and was only 16 when he entered the big prison. He has become an expert electrician and gas engineer, it was said at the prison. He has earned "good time."

TWO DOLLAR WHEAT?

Chiengo, Jan. 7.—Two dollars a bushel for wheat, the dream that only enthusiasts ever expected to come true was within a half cent of being a reality today on one grade of wheat, if the cost of delivery to Europe might be counted as part of the price. It is a fact that a carload of the kind of wheat known as Durum was sold today to go to Italy on a basis that figured, delivered at destination, $1.99 1/2 a bushel.

Such a price breaks all records for Durum wheat. The supply of variety in the United States is said to be virtually exhausted for this season.

Among the purchasers of the May option wheat was the Rockefeller foundation, which wanted to spot cash.

Ice Jams In The Miami At Dayton

Dayton, Jan. 7.—Street railway traffic has been suspended over the Fifth street bridge here because of ice jams in the Miami river, threatening the structure. Squads of men and engineers of the city engineering department are on hand with large amounts of dynamite to break any jams that may form.

Cincinnati, Jan. 7.—The coroner's inquest into the death of Frank G. Holt, the automobile bandit, killed here after having robbed two banks, and Patrolman Edward Knau, whom Holt killed before being shot to death, was started today. The testimony of the first few witnesses indicated that Holt had two revolvers, one containing blank cartridges with which he frightened employees of the banks he robbed while the other was loaded for use in case he was hard pressed.

ity in the present conflict, obliged to refrain from investigating their truthfulness or making any comment in regard to them.

"The time will come, however, when the truth may be impartially determined, and when the judgment of the world will be passed upon the charges made by the various belligerents of violations of the rules of civilized warfare.

"Your Excellency also states that the British government had ordered from the Winchester Repeating Arms company twenty thousand riot guns model 1897 and fifty million buckshot cartridges for use in such guns. This department saw a published statement of the Winchester company, the correctness of which the company has confirmed to the department by telegraph. In this statement the company categorically denies that it has received an order for such guns and cartridges from or made any sale of such material, to the British government or to any other government in the present war.

"Your Excellency further calls attention to information, the accuracy of which is not to be doubted, that eight million cartridges fitted with 'mushroom bullets' have been delivered since October of last year by the Union metallic cartridge company for the armament of the English army.

"In reply I have the honor to refer to the letter of December 10, 1914, of the Remington Arms-Union Metallic Cartridge company of New York to your excellency called forth by certain newspaper reports of statements alleged to have been made by you in regard to the sale by that company of soft nosed bullets. From this letter, a copy of which was sent to this department, it appears that instead of eight million cartridges having been sold only a little over 117,000 were manufactured and 109,000 were sold. The letter further asserts that these cartridges were made to supply a demand for a better sporting cartridge than a soft nosed bullet that had been manufactured theretofore; and that such cartridges cannot be used in the military rifle of any foreign power. The company adds that its statement can be substantiated and that it is ready to give you any evidence that you may require on these points.

"This department is now in receipt from the company of a complete detailed list of the persons to whom these cartridges were sold. From this list appears that the cartridges were sold to firms in lots of 2,000; and one lot each of 3,000, 4,000, 5,000. Of these only 960 cartridges went to North America and 100 to British East Africa.

"I, however, can furnish this department with evidence that this or any other company are manufacturing or selling for the use of the contending armies in Europe, cartridges, whose use would contravene The Hague convention. The government would be glad to be furnished with the evidence and the president directs me to inform you that in case any American company is shown to be engaged in this traffic, he will use his influence to prevent so far as possible sales of such ammunition to the powers engaged in the European war without regard to whether it is the duty of this government upon legal or conventional grounds to take such action.

"In view of the publicity which has been given to your excellency's complaint addressed to the department in these matters it is taken for granted that there can be no objection on your part to equal publicity being given to this note and the letter of the union metallic cartridge addressed to you on December 10, 1914.

In Either Arena of War

In Poland the Germans apparently are no nearer Warsaw and there is little alteration in the battle front extending from the Baltic to the Carpathians. The Russians seem to be still concentrating their main effort in the Carpathian passes. At the same time they are continuing a vigorous offensive in Bucovina.

In the western arena of military activities the allies have varied from their flank attacks which recently brought them success in the sand dunes of Flanders and in Alsace, by intensifying the pressure from Rhine to the Lorraine frontier, where some ground has been gained.

The Germans, meanwhile, have sought to repair the damage done to their wings. This has resulted in the recovery of some ground for them near Steinbuhl in Upper Alsace, but their attacks in Flanders were repulsed.

REPEAL CIVIL SERVICE CLAUSE

We do not possess that blind admiration for the civil service clause of the constitution that seems to characterize the Ohio State Journal, and we believe that the people of the state would be better off if it were eliminated. For our part we certainly would cordially support an amendment repealing the civil service clause and we hope that the present legislature will pave the way for the submission of such an amendment at the election this coming fall. We believe that it would be overwhelmingly adopted.

One reason for the faith that is in us is that there never has been and there never will be a political party that will respect civil service when it stands in the way of putting their own friends into office. They will scheme and twist and crook until they have evaded the law, as witness the action of the Ohio legislature this week when its Republican majority gleefully ducked the civil service provision that required their employees to come from the classified list. Such actions, and it should be said the Democrats would have done the same thing had positions been reversed, do much to bring law and order into disrepute, have a tendency to make the general public look upon laws which they disapprove as unjust and to be evaded if possible at their own convenience. It is unhappy that not only in the state but also in counties and cities where the alleged civil service laws obtain. In actual enforcement they do not amount to a hill of beans and there would be a far better state of public morals if the laws never existed.

Another thing is that we do not believe in building up an office holding class in this country. It is not a good thing for any government to have an aristocracy of people in government service with the door closed to others who may aspire to positions. It has a tendency to breed extravagance for another thing. Every new broom sweeps clean and every time a new man goes into office he does his utmost to lop off expense in order to make a record for himself. In time he gets envious and extravagant and useless salaries are added to his department which will only be done away with when a new man is put on the job.

It is an easy matter for fireside dreamers to yell "reactionary" at persons who doubt the efficacy of civil service as a cure-all for political diseases, but it is a mighty lot more painful sight for Ohio to witness the evolutions now on at Columbus to evade a clause of the constitution of the state.

Let us have a civil service repeal amendment submitted. And let us bury it out of sight.

SUGGESTION FROM MARION.

Senator-elect Harding does not seem to grow enthusiastic over the slings of the "True Democracy" to soft breaths in the political service and he mildly throws out a hint to that effect in Tuesday's issue of the Marion Star, his newspaper. After mentioning the vociferous efforts of the "True" Democrats to attract the attention of the chief dispenser at the pfc counter, Senator Harding hands out this jolt to the noisy patriots:

"It's always possible that the new governor may select men for these new positions because of fitness, uninfused by their adherence to a party faction."

Of course it is "always possible" as Senator Harding suggests. It might be probable were Mr. Harding governor instead of Mr. Willis that there would be honest effort to get Republicans for office who had some other qualification than party work. It even might be possible that a bunch of disgruntled Democratic heelers with itch for office might be given the boot. But with Mr. Willis—well time alone can tell. His past history does not bear out the promise of anything out of the ordinary politician, lucky enough to land in the governor's chair. He has ruled at his predecessors as spokesman and he has made professions of what he would do if he once landed in office in the way of organizing the public service for the public benefit, as he termed it. It remains to be seen what he will do when he gets the opportunity.

For our part we never did like these hundred to one bets, however.

Why is it that every time a prudent a little out of the ordinary routine confronts a state or city our public officials who were touted as world beaters when they sought office fall down on the job and set up a cry for experts? Would it not be a good idea to employ the experts in the first place?

Ironon is worked up again. This time it is the dance as she is being danced by the young things of the Iron City. Critics say that the Ironon version is demoralizing to this youthful mind. And the official dance master of the burg says it ain't so. And the dear young folks go right on dancing regardless.

DOC HOY IN DEEP WATER.

Sad to relate the Hon. Doc Hoy, representative from Jackson county, who has set himself up as the Moses to lead Republican patriots to the fatted calf by suspending the Ohio constitution, has gotten himself some unenviable notoriety by his performances at a banquet over in Urbana. There was a judicious banquet there of Republicans and Hoy made his appearance with the statement that he had come as the special representative of Edwin Jones, Republican state chairman, who was ill. There were many notable Republicans present and of course Doc made the effort of his life to shine as an after dinner orator. He shone all right, but it was such a dismal, gloomy sort of a shine that the echoes of it are still reverberating throughout the Seventh congressional district. And how did Doc shine? Why he told a choice variety of stories of a character that made a dozen lady writers who were enjoying the festivities flee from the room in dismay. The Urbana Democrat says that "the first story caused surprise, the second astounded the hearers. The women fled." Rev. W. L. Guard, formerly of Urbana, but now of Tippecanoe City, was seated at the speaker's table, and he whispered to Trustmuster Denton to pass the word to Hoy that not only were ladies present, but gentlemen also. Denton told Hoy by the coat-tail, and that moment Hoy spied the departing ladies. He covered his confusion with a few meaning less remarks, and as the doors closed after the women, he asked: "Now is the const clear?" Then he proceeded to tell another snappy story.

And this is the gentleman who aspires to leadership in the lower house of the legislature, who wants to blaze the trail for the Willis administration. It is not surprising that his preposterous idea of suspending the constitution in order to grab the offices was ruthlessly sat down upon by his colleagues. A few more such performances and Hoy will find himself as the president and general manager of the nuisance club of the legislature.

Watching For Bargains

Watching for bargains is about the most interesting game that can be played. And it is the only game that a whole city full of people can play at one time.

Here you are, for example, the readers of this paper, thousand strong and here are all the stores lined up before you. Each store must clear its stocks. Every day each store is doing something different.

And every moment you are watching.

Suddenly this store comes out with a great shoe sale. The bargains are remarkable. Immediately thousands of you readers are interested in shoes and as quickly as the doors of that store are opened, in you go hurrying, jostling and laughing good naturally to get your share of the offerings that are being made.

On another page another store thrusts out its offer of another kind of merchandise—dresses, or underwear or furs and immediately another part of the great throng of the readers of this paper is hurrying there.

And the best part of the fun is watching for the unexpected sales. Some merchant who is going quietly along, discovers that he, too, is overstocked and perhaps for the first time in his life tries the remedy of advertising.

He lays his merchandise out on the great bargain counter of this newspaper's pages. He puts a remarkably low price upon it. And before his doors are opened many hours, the crowds are there and he discovers that the advertising method has also worked with him. You get new bargains, we get a new advertiser and he gets a new lease on life.

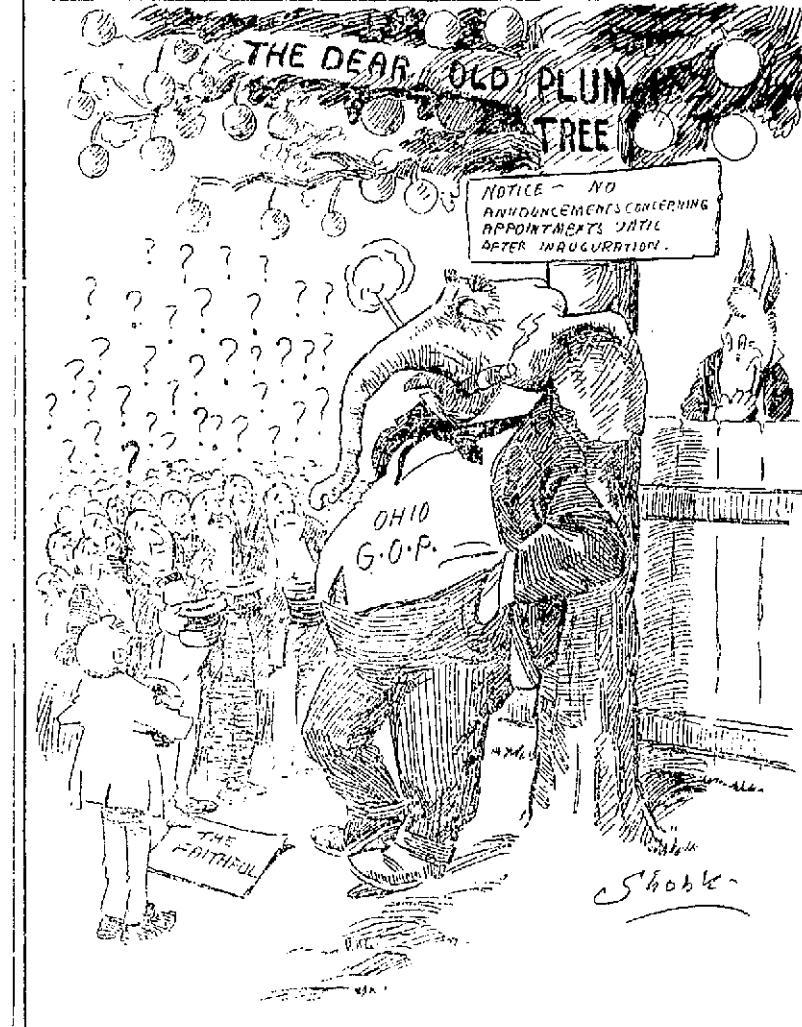

It is all wonderfully interesting when you play it as a game. Try it now. See what these advertising pages have in store for you.

HIGH WIND DOES HEAVY DAMAGE

Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 7—Three persons were known to be dead, several others were badly injured and property damage aggregating many thousands of dollars was reported early today as the result of a violent windstorm which swept northern Florida and south Georgia last night. Wire communication into the affected territory was suspended until after midnight and only meagre details have been received.

The greatest damage apparently was in Georgia and all the fatalities reported were in that state. W. J. Spain was killed at Quitman, and Mrs. Thomas Sawyer, and her son were killed when their home at Abbeville was wrecked. Residences, farm buildings, trees, fences and telegraph poles were blown down and, in some places, trees were uprooted. Falling timbers injured live stock on many farms.

THE AWFUL SUSPENSE.

ACCUSED TRIO HELD; BAIL IS DENIED THEM

"Isn't this a fine day for a walk?" said Irvin H. Stewart, proprietor of the Cut Rate Medicine store in the Turley block to Miss Bertha Rueppel, Thursday afternoon.

"It's too fine to stay in the store so if you will get ready we will take a little walk," continued Mr. Stewart.

And their little aintless walk ended in their marriage as soon as reaching the court house. Mr. Stewart said: "Our wedding night is as well be now as later," and they entered Probate Judge Beatty's office, secured the necessary permit to wed and fifteen minutes later were made man and wife by Rev. A. R. Connell, pastor of Bigelow M. B. Church, the ceremony taking place in the parsonage of this church.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart were soon back at the bridegroom's place of business and announced the glad tidings to their friends. The news of the marriage of this popular and highly esteemed couple will be received with much pleasure by their hosts of friends, who for some time have been anticipating such a happy event.

Mr. Stewart came to Portsmouth October 5, 1912 and during the intervening years has made legion of friends here by his uniform courteous treatment in his business and his friendly and genial disposition. He is a son of the late W. R. and Elizabeth Stewart, former residents of Tyrone, Pa.

Miss Rueppel, who is a charming young girl, and who for sometime was in the employ of the bridegroom, is a daughter of Gen. and Elizabeth Rueppel of 393 East Thirteenth avenue, Columbus. Mr. and Mrs. Rueppel were for many years residents of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart are now busy receiving congratulations of their friends in which The Times joins most heartily.

WILSON LEAVES TONIGHT FOR INDIANAPOLIS

Washington, Jan. 7—Arrangements were completed today for President Wilson's trip to Indianapolis, where he will address a Jackson Day celebration there Friday, under the auspices of the Indiana Club.

The president, accompanied by Secretary Tammly and Dr. C. T. Grayson, will leave here at seven o'clock tonight for Indianapolis, arriving shortly after one o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

PINCHOT TO EUROPE

Philadelphia, Jan. 7—Gifford Pinchot, former chief forester of the United States and his wife will sail from New York next Saturday to assist Mr. Pinchot's sister, Lady Allan Johnston, in her work of establishing a hospital in the war zone.

THE DEAR OLD PLUM TREE

Some say that the mother said to Kendall: "Be prepared to meet your Maker and Father in heaven for you are doomed," during the time she was addressing her son just before the hearing began.

When quiet was restored Kendall Field with firm voice addressed the mayor. "That was all a mistake about me lighting down my mother, mayor," said Mr. Field. He declared that the turkey had merely asked him if he wanted to see his mother and had not asked him if he wanted to talk with her. He said he knew she was at police headquarters and he would have gladly received her.

Some dray followed in hearing the first witness called, Officer Allen. He told of the search made at the Anderson and Pennington homes and of the finding of a flashlight. Asked to identify the one in possession of the court he said it favored the one he had found in a dresser drawer at the Pennington home. He had given it to the chief and knew nothing of its ownership.

Chief On The Stand.

Chief W. T. McCarty was the next witness to take the stand. He positively identified the flashlight as the one Allen had turned over to him. He said it had been in his possession ever since but on cross examination he had allowed it to pass around among the various officers. He was unable to say that Banus had had such a light.

Officer Charles Flowers proved rather interesting witness. He told of an engagement he had with Banus at the N. & W. depot two months ago.

Banus had been examining his flashlight and he asked to see it. The witness appeared "stumped" when asked the direct question if he could identify the Banus flashlight.

He evaded the question by declaring he could give a description of it or draw a sketch of it. After much parley,

After a brief examining trial which was devoid of any particular incident save the thrill caused by dramatic outbursts of Mrs. Carey Field, aged mother of one of the defendants, Kendall Field, John "Sweetie" Anderson and Osgood Pennington were held to the grand jury without bond by Mayor Trick, Thursday afternoon. They are accused of the murder of Detective James A. Baucus.

Are Taken To County Jail

The three men after a brief recess during which they were permitted to talk with their wives and relatives were placed in the city service wagon under heavy guard, led by Sheriff Pete Smith and immediately transferred to the county jail. Fully 500 men stood about as the prisoners filed from the court room to the patrol, record crowd.

Believes It Is Baucus' Flashlight

"It looks like Chief Baucus' light and in the best of my judgment I think it is the one I saw that night," said the witness.

Flowers said when pointed northward the indentation was on the right side of the flashlight. This jolted with the flashlight held by the court. Flowers said Banus told him that the light became dented one day when he slipped and hit it against a box car corner. The top of the light was worn brassy. He had remarked to the sheriff, he said, "when they find Baucus' flashlight you'll find it had a dent in its side." He admitted that there were many similar flashlights in use.

With Flowers' testimony ended the state rested although a dozen or more witnesses had been sworn. Mr. Funk Makes Plea

Mr. Funk promptly asked the discharge of the defendants. He called attention to the unusual procedure of the court taking cognizance of facts he had in mind and which were not even offered in evidence. He laid stress on the fact that no evidence had been produced that a murder had even been committed, that Banus was slain in Scioto county or the state of Ohio, that he carried a light or pistol the night he was killed. He argued that nothing was shown to connect the three accused with the ownership of the flashlight.

The court in briefly reviewing the evidence and in passing on some quoted statistics showing that in first degree murder cases all that was necessary was that a suspicion was attached to the defendants and they could be held. He felt sure that the three men before him would not be convicted by any jury if they were innocent and the grand jury was the proper place to bring out the facts.

Prosecuting Attorney Jos Mielchlethwait prompted the court in many of his questions.

GERMANY DENIES CARDINAL'S ARREST

The Hague, Netherlands, Jan. 7.—The German military government in Belgium today characterized the report published in the Amsterdam Tijds, that Cardinal Mercier, archbishop of Malines, had been arrested as absolutely false.

The cardinal has neither been detained in the bishop's palace at Malines nor placed under police surveillance of any sort, the official statement says. It also is denied that any priests have been arrested.

CANADIAN TROOPERS MUST STAND TRIAL

Toronto, Jan. 7.—The provincial constable and the three Canadian soldiers who were concerned in the shooting at Fort Erie on December 28 of the American duck hunters, Charles Dussey and Walter Smith, of Buffalo, will be placed on trial in the Ontario courts, the authorities announced today.

A Misshap

A Hilltop matron who received a new apron for Christmas was greatly pleased with it.

The bottom of the apron was arranged in the form of a wide pocket for catching crumbs and other small particles from the table.

"How does the crumb catcher work?" her husband asked her, after she had owned the apron two days.

"It works all right," the wife answered, "but the first day I filled it full of gravy."

IDS CHILDREN GOOD-BYE; LEAVES WITH LOVER

MRS. KESSLER ADDS ANOTHER CHAPTER TO HILLTOP SENSATION

An astounding climax to the marital troubles of Charles Kessler, an N. & W. freight conductor, and his wife, Elizabeth Kessler, came the latter's sudden departure from the city for her alleged lover, Andy Hubman early Thursday morning. Kessler before leaving the family home at Kinney Lane and Main Avenue bade good-bye to her two young sons, Cecil and Donald and little daughter Reba at 3 o'clock in the morning. They were all in bed but wide awake.

KILLED CHILDREN GOOD-BYE

The mother, without showing any unusual emotion, kissed each son, admonished them to be good children and to mind the words her father had engaged as housekeeper, and telling that she did write to them and perhaps come back some day, bade them adieu. The children showed little emotion. Mrs. Kessler then rode an Interstate auto bus that was in waiting. The husband completed her part of the way, leaving the bus at Offene's street corner to go out on his regular run on the Kenova district.

The N. & W. passenger department. Mrs. Kessler was joined by Hubman. They had expected to be on the early northbound train, it is said, but missed it.

Officer Jake Cooper recognized Hubman, began to talk to him, started down Waller street to the young man, but Mrs. Kessler followed and the conversation ended.

When the couple missed the train they then checked their suitcases for safekeeping until the train on which they left together, having bought tickets for Columbus.

Spotted To Go Cleveland

Mrs. Kessler's supposed destination is Cleveland, where she expected to visit at the home of her nephew. At the Hubman and Andy's going was dismissed the brief statement that he was out of town and that it was known when he would return, but how the couple planned to be simultaneously is not known. Both believed they must have had to each other over the telephone. Ever since the exposure a day ago Mrs. Kessler had been keeping close to home and retired early but a few minutes this evening.

Kessler Worried

The woman is said to have given not the slightest concern over her husband's divorce action against her, the separation or the removal of their children from custody. The children while conscious that their mother probably lost to them forever.

Mrs. Kessler is a native of Guyandotte, W. Va., while Kessler came here from Huntington. He is a man of splendid physique and a gentlemanly bearing. The new order of things. They wonder has been expressed by

The latest developments in the case have caused a renewed sensation in the East End and Hilltop district, where the principals are well known.

NEVER before in the history of our concern have we been so overstocked on January 1st as we are this year. We blame this in part on the European struggle, now devastating the older continent with an orgy of rapine and blood, and causing a great business depression in this country. is available at present. Patterns that appear in this column from time to time are not released until the day they are printed, hence I could not run a pin cushion pattern even if we had one here in the office, which we have not. I think, however, you can find one in a fashion book. If not inquire at the art department of our local stores.

Dear Miss Wise.—I am 17 years old and am in good health. Am I capable of joining the navy? And where would you advise me to go to take examinations? How is my writing and spelling?

SILVER KID.

For information in regard to joining the navy write to the Naval Recruiting Station, Cincinnati. You will also have to go to Cincinnati to be examined. You cannot join, however without the consent of your parents. Your writing is pretty good. The last question you asked was entirely too foolish to answer.

Dear Miss Wise.—I am a young man 25 years old. How can I have a soft white face? EDDIE.

I fail to see what a young man wants with a soft white face.

Dear Miss Wise.—Can newspaper illustration be learned by taking a correspondence course? Or does it require going to a school of that kind? Do you know of any reliable school that teaches art by correspondence? If so, what address?

SLIM JIM.

Instruction in newspaper illustration can be successfully given by correspondence to a person of good general education and endowed with plenty of native talent in drawing and with a large measure of the quality generally referred to as stick-to-it-iveness. Unless you are quite certain that you have these qualities and especially the last named, it would be a sheer waste of time for you to attempt to learn to draw by correspondence or by any other method. Even with unusual talent it might require years of study before you could make it pay. There are a number of schools that teach illustration by correspondence but I cannot mention them in this column. If you will send me your name and address I will mail you the information you desire.

Miss Dolly Wise.—Will you please print an oblong or square pin cushion in tonight's paper. Many thanks in return.

LUCY.

I am sorry, but no such pattern

SOCIETY

Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub well into the scalp. After a few applications all dandruff disappears and the hair stops coming out.

Times Service Pattern 1149

1149. A practical convenient garment.

Child's Night Drawers with gathered or straight lower edge, with long or short sleeve, and with either of two styles of neck finish.

This style will produce a comfortable sleeping garment, most satisfactory for young children who "kick off" their covers. It is good for canaries, muslin, flannel, denim, cotton or cotton flannel or linens. The neck edge may be finished with a flat collar, or cut out in square outline. The sleeve may be in short or wrist length. The leg portions may be gathered or ungathered at the lower edge. The pattern is cut in 5 sizes: 2, 3, 6, 8 and 10 years. It requires 3/4 yards of 36-inch material for an 8-year size.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10c in silver or stamps.

Orders for patterns are forwarded to New York to be filled hence it requires several days for the pattern to reach the purchaser. Patterns can not be ordered by telephone. Do not use postage stamps for larger denomination than two cents.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Y. Correll have returned from a visit with relatives in Ironton. While there they had their baby daughter christened Mary Catherine at St. Lawrence church, Rev. James H. Cottier officiating. The sponsors were Mrs. Correll's brother, Charles Sell and sister, Miss Ethel Sell.

Mrs. Charles Glickner, of this city, went to Ironton Thursday for a brief visit with his mother, Mrs. Schaeffer.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Grimes are enjoying the pleasures at Pinckhurst, N. C., and will arrive home Sunday from their ten days' wedding trip.

Mrs. George D. Solby delightfully entertained with a Kensington Wednesday afternoon at her home on Pinckhurst, which is very unnecessary. Here is a remedy that gets right at the root of the trouble.

Get 2½ ounces Pine and Sugar Syrup. Start taking it in small quantities, then increase it, and never thought would end. It also has the dry, hoarse or tight coughs, and bronchial asthma.

This Pine and Sugar Syrup makes a full pint—enough for a family a long time—at a cost of 25 cents. It is easily prepared. Full directions.

Pine is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Pine extract, rich in tannin, and is incomparable in its curative properties in overcoming bad colds.

Get the genuine. Ask for "2½ ounces Pine," and do not buy anything else. A guaranteed satisfaction, or money refunded.

opinion is rapidly gaining around in baseball circles that the twenty-five rule in the major leagues will never be seriously enforced. The rule would require an enrollment somewhat along the following lines: pitchers, eight; catchers, 4; fielders, five; umpires, 3. At the beginning of the fall season the American League club rosters contained the following number of players: Athletics, 29; Washington, 23; Cleveland, 26; Chicago, 31; Detroit, 30; New York, 25; St. Louis, 29.

LARRY MAKES A BET Reds Would Give $10,000 For Docin

It is nicely in the Mack machine where veterans and clowns abound and where the silent system is more in vogue. It looks as if Cleveland and Philadelphia would both benefit if the game—something that rarely occurs in a baseball trade unless dissatisfaction with present conditions exists—in mind of the player exchanged.

Larry LaJoie, who goes back to the Athletics, has wagered a $500 suit of clothes with a Cleveland friend that he will hit .300 for Connie Mack this season.

WAR IS--
What Sherman
Said It Was

GHESE are war times. Everybody is talking war. War is all that Sherman said it was, yet folks still fight and the sound of martial music still makes the blood run faster.

These are victories of peace, we are told, and there are warfares in the times of peace. Not warfares fought with guns and swords and dreadnaughts and Zeppelins but warfares just the same. There are struggles for truth and moral courage and honesty. Fights for the betterment of the world, not for its destruction. Warfare for the right, for cleanliness, for all that is best.

There are fights that folks little realize, made to build up a reputation for honest business and to maintain that reputation by constant care, eternal vigilance against deterioration and a constant fight against initiation and dishonesty and cheapening.

Such a fight has been made in the leather world for years by the makers of HANAN SHOES.

Never has the battle lagged for a moment. Always these products are guarded against any lowering of quality, against anything that would for a moment blemish the reputation built up for them and which rests business success. That's why you may be sure of yourself when you buy Hanan Shoes.

OVERHEAD CROSSING ORDINANCE IS PASSED; NEW PLUMBING BILL

The ordinance declaring it being violations a misdemeanor. It is necessary to construct the New Haven viaduct or overhead crossing between Young and New Eighth was unanimously passed by city council, Wednesday night, as had been predicted.

The ordinance was up for its third and final reading and no opposition was raised against its passage. Mr. Charles Wilson had the honor of making the motion to adopt the ordinance. Rules were suspended and a new ordinance providing for a $42,000 bond issue, covering the city's proportion of the cost of the structure, was also adopted, the bonds $4 in number to bear 5 per cent interest.

Mr. Westphal moved the adoption of the bond ordinance which will offset the old Kendall Avenue subway bond issue. So long as these remain undisturbed and held by the sinking fund trustees no harm is done but if in a few years the board would sell them to outside parties the city would be paying 5 per cent on each issue or 10 per cent on both.

The passage of the overhead crossing ordinance proved a source of much satisfaction to Mayor Frick, who was present to see it meant the fulfillment of a plan advocated just as soon as he became the head of the present administration. It was exactly a year ago to the day that he sent his first official communication to council and among others recommended that such a structure be built.

Waterworks Debt
Is Discussed

The mayor's letter to the service director recommending that immediate steps be taken relative to meeting the bonded water works debt of the city and taking care of the operating expenses by installing a meter system at manufacturing plants, mercantile establishments, etc., for a period of one year awakened council to the necessity of early action.

Judge Osborn, who in the absence of Vice Mayor Cook, presided over the meeting, regarded this as a matter of utmost importance although he differed with the mayor as to the time required to work out a plan, it not believing it would take a whole year. Mr. Wilson felt that it was a question to be carefully considered and in order that council could act more intelligently in the matter urged that it be taken up at an adjourned session. Upon his motion it was decided to hold this session Friday evening.

Chairman Schmank of the finance committee, presented resolutions for a new $10,000 sewer bond issue for the purpose of extending the sewerage system of the city. The issue contemplates also covering the extension of the Sixth ward sewer in the North End and the connecting link of the Cecil S. Miller sewer in the Hilltop district.

The chair declared these were two necessary parts of the system and but for this he would have opposed the bond issue. He said the sewer problem was one that now had to be met in Portsmouth and he suggested that the engineers get busy and prepare some general plan so that it could be disposed of this year. The bond problem, too, he said, has become a serious one but as the projected sewers are needed and quite a section of the city is benefited by them he felt nothing was lost.

Mr. Shinn inquired if it would be necessary first to submit the plans for the two sewers to the state board of health, reminding his colleagues of the emphatic declarations of a representative of that body on a recent visit here. City Solicitor McCall assured him that these were merely storm sewers and that failure to submit plans to the state board would not affect the bond ordinance but the general plan of course will have to be submitted for approval.

Solicitor McCall reported that an ordinance providing for a city plumbing inspector and board of examiners and to regulate the plumbing business had been submitted to him and that Attorney Clint Searl was present to explain it. The solicitor felt that the proper procedure would be to refer it to the council ordinance committee. He was supported in this view by the chair who felt that the matter should first be threshed out by the committee and not occupy council's time with the details. Mr. Searl, therefore, was not granted a hearing and he and the many master and journeymen plumbers present left the room.

Will Standardize
Plumbing Work

The purpose of the tentative ordinance is to increase the powers of the board of health by making its regulations more effective by putting into its hands the appointment of examiners and mak-

and determine what streets are to be paved this year.

Mr. Gergens also called attention to the danger of trespassers falling into the settling basin at the filtration plant and felt that some protection should be provided for children, either a good hand railing or a wire fence for in the event of accidents the city would be liable for damage. Referred to water and light committee.

The director submitted an estimate of $3,157.70 for the proposed extension of the Sixth ward sewer past the Portsmouth Paving Brick company's plant.

Safety Director Jolce submitted the annual reports of the fire and police chiefs of the city but said he expected to confer with the council committee before further taking up the recommendations contained in the reports. These were read and listened to with great interest by the members.

Resolutions were passed transferring various funds, such as $262.20 unexpended balance of the Thirteenth street improvement to make up a deficit on the Eighth street paving job, $7,427.18 from various streets to the sinking fund, $2,739 to the general fund.

Reports were made by the Woman's Union and the four sections. This report showed that almost 15,000 calls had been made during the past year, together with the fact that the good women who compose the various sections had made and contributed more than $5000, nevertheless the year 1914 showed that it had been reduced quite perceptibly and that the coming year would see it cut more than one-third. According to the report, the congregation now boasts of a membership of 1533, more than 200 having been added to the rolls during the past twelve months.

One of the male members of the church, explained a plan which he was suggesting would result in paying off a considerable amount of the debt. It was no less than to take advantage of the Christmas Savings Club plan, which has been adopted by two of the leading banking institutions of the city. The plan seemed to meet with favor and will no doubt be adopted by both Sunday school and church.

Following the program, the members repaired to the basement, where a most delectable repast was served by the Woman's Union. ANNUAL MEETING OF 1ST CHRISTIAN CHURCH WAS SPLENDID AFFAIR

That the enthusiasm of the members of the First Christian church is genuine and not assumed was shown Wednesday night, when upwards of 200 gathered at the church of their choice when annual reports, covering the financial as well as the spiritual condition of the congregation were made public by the various heads of the church. Sunday school, Christian Endeavor and Boy Scouts. The reports proved conclusively that during the past twelve months much progress has been made. While the debt that hangs over the church is still upwards of $5000, nevertheless the year 1914 showed that it had been reduced quite perceptibly and that the coming year would see it cut more than one-third. According to the report, the congregation now boasts of a membership of 1533, more than 200 having been added to the rolls during the past twelve months.

the car at Carroll's Vehicle Co., Third and Gay streets, as the prices best suited them.

While walking up the street they met an old friend who tried to induce them to go to the Novelette Skating Rink, Gallia and Lincoln streets, for the "recreation and indoor exercise", but they could not be persuaded, as pa had decided to get some of the "cut" assortment of cigars and tobacco from the Smoke House, 3 Gallia street, and then spend an hour or so bowling, the great indoor building sport, at the Play House, Sixth and Chillicothe streets, while ma spent her time at the Arcana Theater, Seventh and Lincoln streets, seeing the exciting and thrilling cowboy and Indian shows for only 5 cents.

After their enjoyment the old couple decided to get a dinner at Win Nye's, Fourth and Chillicothe streets, for their's unsurpassable.

Then pa proposed buying some rubber heels from the Men's Shoe Shop, 1027 Gallia street, where they are obtained right way at the right price.

And after having purchased a Safe Cabinet, 419 Mason Temple, for a cheaper price and more protective than the old one, visited Leet's Lumber Company, to get an estimation of the cost.

The next thought of was the eatables. An order for seven articles was left at the People's Cash Store, 1026 Gallia street, as they handle the same goods for less money. An order for some the 35c coffee for 25c was given to the Inter City Tea Co., over Security Bank. A barrel of Golden Horn flour was ordered from Wurster Bros., as this is guaranteed spring wheat.

On account of the infectious disease around their home they decided to get a turkey from Schisler & Son, 718 John street, as the provisions were all gotten after having obtained some of the pure, clean and safe pasteurized milk from the Pure Milk Co., 1619-21 Eighth street.

In noticing the advertisement in Dan Dodge's window, Gallia street, decided to have his glasses reset with "Tortoise Eyes" as these rest the eyes, while ma was busy selecting beautiful jewelry from Roy Wendelken's handsome assortment at 905 Gallia street, as this makes the most appreciated wedding present.

Now they decided to purchase some things for the family. Few articles were gotten from the Corner Book Store, Second and Chillicothe streets, as their's best suited them. A football from Henry Roth's, 420 Chillicothe street, at a reasonable price. A Linda which best pleased them from Wurster Bros., 417 Chillicothe street, and a jar of "Milk Weed" for there is beauty in every from Stewart's, 201 Chillicothe street.

As pa and ma expect to celebrate their golden wedding next week, they decided to have some invitations printed at the Jutty-up department of the Keystone Press Co., 508-510 Franklin street, and then to have their picture, which was taken on the wedding day, enlarged at King's Art Gallery, 211 Chillicothe street, as he does his work carefully and promptly.

This visit of this old couple to take advantage of the bargains of Portsmouth's thrifty business men, is but a slight incident of those that can be obtained by the people of this Pearl City.

GREEK XMAS IS OBSERVED TODAY

Toasts were drunk to the heroes of Athens and other notable Greek cities Thursday when the Portsmouth contingent of Greeks celebrated their Christmas Day.

It is not their custom to exchange gifts on this gladness day, but they call on each other and drink wine to the notable men who brought fame and undying glory to their native land.

Throughout America today no doubt Greeks lifted their glasses in commemoration of noted Greeks.

CHURCH PROSPERS

Very gratifying to the pastor and to the congregation were the reports of the organizations affiliated with the church at the quarterly business meeting of the First Baptist church congregation Wednesday evening, which was presided over by the pastor, Rev.

Upon motion of Mr. Gulkner estimates shall in the future be supplied to chairmen of the various committees when called for by them.

Mr. Gulkner reported that the folks on Sunnyside wanted to know about "that" alley. He said they were anxious to have the alley improved and would provide the material and asked that the service department give them an estimate. Upon his motion the service director was instructed to get in touch with the property owners and enter into a contract for the improvement. City Engineer Wilhelm raised the point that the owners of Sunnyside addition had reserved the right of improving the streets and alleys and dedicating them to the city and he questioned if the city could legally make the improvement referred to.

Upon Mr. Gulkner's motion an estimate was ordered prepared for the completion of the Maddox alley sewer, which he said was only partly constructed.

Mr. Westphal reported that there were several persons living on the north side of Twelfth street who desired tapping into the proposed Pflueger sewer. He was advised to have them petition for the extension.

Upon Mr. Gulkner's motion an estimate was ordered prepared for the completion of the Maddox alley sewer, which he said was only partly constructed.

Mr. Westphal reported that there were several persons living on the north side of Twelfth street who desired tapping into the proposed Pflueger sewer. He was advised to have them petition for the extension.

ANOTHER GIRL MISSING FROM HOME; RELATIVES MAKE FRUITLESS SEARCH

PAIR CAUGHT IN RAID FINED BY THE MAYOR

After conducting a fruitless search in the city for their daughter, Miss Margaret White who left home in Wheelersburg five weeks ago, Mr. and Mrs. Louis L. White, parents of the girl are officially convinced that Miss White is not in Portsmouth and greatly alarmed. Without leaving word as to where she was going, Miss White left home shortly after Thanksgiving Day and with the exception of the three days spent with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Russ of Sciotoville her parents have not been able to get a trace of the missing girl, who is eighteen years old.

It was thought that she might be living at the home of her brother, Claude White, of Twelfth Street, but Mrs. White learned her daughter had only been there for a short time several weeks ago and when last seen she said that she would leave for Columbus, where she hoped to secure employment.

It was later learned by Mrs. White that her daughter was employed in a Fifth street home, but proved to be untrue. Miss White, when last seen wore three-quarter length tan coat, weight between 140 and 150 pounds and wears nose glasses. Mrs. White stated Thursday that she would have the Columbus authorities institute a search for her missing daughter, whom she always kept in close touch with the family and she cannot account for her sudden leaving. White is employed in the office of the Portsmouth Steel Company. The family formerly resided in New Boston, where the missing girl is well known. Singularly enough Miss Edith Cook, who disappeared Wednesday, lives within a few miles of Miss White's home in Wheelersburg.

FIND STOLEN BOAT

Wayne Keyser and Jess Hinds, two Huntington young men, who had recovered a stolen motor boat that was abandoned just this side of Vanceburg, found themselves stranded in Portsmouth, Thursday. They ran short of not only money, but gasoline and batteries as well. They got into communication with the Huntington authorities who vouch for them, whereupon Chief McFarty loaned the two $5. The boat had been used by some men in making their escape after robbing a woman at Huntington.

MOTHER OF SEA VICTIM IS DEAD IN CINCINNATI

News of the death of Mrs. Sarah Butler, which took place at the home of her son, George Butler, of Cincinnati, Wednesday, reached local relatives last night. Mrs. Butler had been ill for some time with rheumatism but the immediate cause of her death was heart trouble.

Mrs. Butler, who was 70 years old, was a resident of this city until 15 years ago. It will be recalled that her son, Edward Butler, together with his family met a tragic death in the Pacific ocean when the Columbus, on which they were taking a pleasure trip was rammed by a lumber-hauling boat near Eureka, Cal., six years ago last July. Mrs. Butler is survived by two sons, Alexander of Baltimore and John of Columbus. She also leaves two sisters, Miss Anna Livingstone of Tinton and Mrs. Catherine McClure of Indianapolis.

The body of Mrs. Butler passed through South Portsmouth Thursday enroute to Tinton, where the funeral services will be conducted Friday morning from the home of Mrs. Alice Livingstone of 110 Fifth street. Interment will be made in Woodlawn.

Correspondence just received by plant is in such shape that the mayor indicates that Engineer same may be used up to capacity. Until that is done the city board of control will in no wise entertain a final settlement.

The mayor disagrees with Mr. Witmer and cites the fact that the Nicola company has since let a contract to Curtis & Shumway to do some work for the firm which is not yet completed. Other parts of the same company's contract are also incomplete, says the mayor. The tunnel which is the important part of the Nicola company's contract can not be tested until the pumping end of the

THREE DEAD IN FLORIDA STORM

HIGH WIND DOES HEAVY DAMAGE, SEVERAL INJURED

Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 7—Three persons were known to be dead, several others were badly injured and property damage aggregating many thousands of dollars was reported early today as the result of a violent windstorm which swept northern Florida and south Georgia last night. Wire communication into the affected territory was suspended until after midnight and only meagre details have been received.

The greatest damage apparently was in Georgia and all the fatalities reported were in that state. W. J. Spain was killed at Quitman, and Mrs. Thomas Sawyer, and her son were killed when their home at Abbeville was wrecked. Residences, farm buildings, trees, fences and telegraph poles were blown down and, in some places, trees were uprooted. Falling timbers injured live stock on many farms.

Reports were that much damage was done along the Florida east coast, but its extent has not yet been determined.

BOTH CHILDREN DEAD, THIRD
WIFE OF ROGERS SINKING

LORRY ELTON ROGERS

New York, Jan. 7.—With the deaths of her eight-months old baby girl and two and a half year old son on her hands, Mrs. Edna Sniffen Walters Rogers lies at death's door in Lebanon hospital. Crazed by the knowledge that though she was the mother of his two children she could not be the legal wife of Lorry Elton Rogers because he was legally bound to another, the common law wife of the eminent lawyer poisoned herself and their two children with doses of bichloride of mercury.

She is visited daily at the hospital by Mrs. Anne Roquemore Rogers, who was Rogers' first wife and divorced him several years ago. The present Mrs. Rogers, who is a sister of Prof. Giddings of Columbia University, and a former chum of the dying woman, is said to be in a serious condition as a result of the revelations that followed the identification of the dying woman.

CARDINAL OF SACRED COLLEGE IS REPORTED HELD BY GERMANY; POPE WILL DEMAND RELEASE

Rome, Jan. 6.—The Vatican, up to a late hour tonight, had received no official confirmation of the reported arrest at Brussels of Cardinal Mercier because of a pastoral letter issued by him in which he is said to have advised Belgians not to give allegiance to the German administration.

Pope Benedict, through Cardinal Gasparri, the papal secretary of state, has instituted anxious inquiries regarding the report, but because of censorship or other causes, no official communication regarding the reported arrest has come through.

The unofficial rumors of the arrest of a member of the sacred college have, however, caused a profound impression and the hope is expressed that the report is untrue.

In Vatican circles it is stated that should the report be officially confirmed it is likely that the pope will protest, even though by so doing he should run the risk of somewhat endangering his position of being absolutely outside and above the conflict, in order that his offer of mediation at an opportune moment, might be likely to succeed.

London, Jan. 7.—The reply of Great Britain to the American note regarding interference with American shipping, it is said in well-informed quarters, is wholly conciliatory and shows a disposition on the part of England to do everything within reason to avert delay to American shipping at a time when freight rates are high and consequently loss of time is costly to ship owners.

England wishes to do everything in its power consistent with the proper safeguarding of the interests of the allies to facilitate world trade and stimulate commerce, paralyzed as it is by war conditions. Consequently, it is declared, there is no disposition on the part of England to protest against the purchase of German vessels by Americans where the sales are genuine and the ships are not used so as to avoid what might reasonably be called the consequences of belligerency.

The use of transferred German ships in the cotton trade with Germany probably will call forth objections from the allies although cotton is not contraband, because the allies, it is said, would regard such use as a roundabout means of escaping the effects of the war.

At any rate, objection is not likely to come until ships are actually transferred and their propulsive use is clearly indicated. It is probable that the allies will take the position that the sale money shall be held until the close of the war as a guarantee that it will not be used to assist belligerents.

An assurance that German ships purchased by the United States government or its citizens would engage in the South American trade only probably would satisfy the allies and prevent any formal objection as a stimulation of the trade with South America is greatly desired by all the allies.

While it is pointed out that the sale of German ships in the New York Harbor to the American government, or its citizens, would inevitably relieve German citizens of the heavy expense of maintenance and insurance, undoubtedly consequences of war within the meaning of international practice, still England probably would be willing to waive objections on this point with other allies.

An analysis of figures shows that in 1910 there were 42 out of two per 1,000 children under 15, out of every 1,000 children in the United States are unable to read and write, according to statistics given by the federal bureau of education. Two states, North Dakota and Nebraska, each having the low rate of 10 to 14 years of age in the United States are unable to read and write, according to statistics given by the federal bureau of education.

Chicago, Jan. 7.—A prize herd of blooded cattle owned by Enoch M. Barton, a wealthy manufacturer and valued at $80,000, have been ordered killed by government inspectors, it was announced today, because several of the cattle were found to be affected with foot and mouth disease. The herd, containing 2,000 cattle, was condemned a month ago, but Dr. S. E. Notable Season For Trades

This 1914-15 off season is going down in baseball records as one of the notable ones of all time for big trades.

The selling of Larry Lajoie to the Philadelphia Americans by Cleveland adds another to the long list of big deals. Lajoie has for many years been identified with Cleveland baseball and for as many as five seasons he has been delinquent to the morale of the club. He had his faction since deposited as manager and his easy way of playing and listless manner took the energy out of many a young ball player who tried to perform along side of him in a gaily fashion. Cleveland long ago would have profited if he had been traded for. Still a good player Lajoie will demand.

Claim $50,000 Is Given To Players

Chicago, Jan. 7.—Club owners of the Federal League have paid out $50,000 in 1915 salary advances to major and minor league stars who deserted organized baseball for the Federal, according to a statement today by James A. Gilmore, president of the Federal organization.

Pitcher Walter Johnson heads the list with $5,000 and others have been paid sums ranging from $1,000 to $3,000.

Will Keep Baker

Washington, D. C., Jan. 7.—"There isn't a chance for me to get either Frank Baker or Rube Oldring," said Manager Griffith yesterday, relative to rumors that he would obtain Baker and Oldring for the Senators. "I wish such yarns would not be written."

TO WINK AT NEW RULE

The opinion is rapidly gathering ground in baseball circles that the twenty-one player rule in the major leagues will never be seriously enforced. This regulation would require an enrollment somewhat above the following lines: pitchers, eight; catchers, 4; fielders, five; and others, 4. At the beginning of the 1913 season the American League club rosters contained the following number of players: Athletics, 29; Washington, 25; Cleveland, 26; Boston, 25; Chicago, 31; Detroit, 30; New York, 25; St. Louis, 20.

Will Be Guest Of Manager Stallings

Macon, Ga., Jan. 7.—If anyone thought it was bad that the loss of the World's Championship would have any effect on the friendship between George Stallings, manager of the Boston Braves, and John J. McGraw, of the defeated Giants, they were sadly disappointed, for it has been announced that McGraw is coming soon for a visit at Stallings' plantation, at Huddocks. It is also announced that owner Gaffey of the Braves; Christy Mathewson, the Giants' pitcher; and Bud Fisher, the famous cartoonist, will also be Manager Stallings' guests at an early date. They will all probably be here for a banquet which is to be given at the Dempsey Hotel, the middle of this month in honor of Stallings.

THE ALL AMERICAN FAD

The New York Sun says: "Leading choices on 'All-American' teams for this year are Burns, Speaker and Cobb in the outfield; Duhart, Collier, McVanville and Baker in the infield; Archer and Schulte, catchers and James, Rudolph, Alexander and W. Johnson, pitchers. There are 43 men on the list—seven Nighthawks and six Americans. That makes the National League one-thirteen stronger than the American team."

THREE YEAR CONTRACT

New York, Jan. 7.—Hans Lobert today signed a three-year contract with the New York National League club. Lobert, former Philadelphia third baseman, came to the Giants in a trade yesterday for Stock, Demaree, Adams and a cash consideration.

Reds Get Wingo

Cincinnati, Jan. 7.—According to a dispatch received today from Atlanta, Ga., Manager Charles Herzog of the Cincinnati baseball team has signed Catcher Harry Wingo to a two-year contract. He terms not being given. The catcher has been reported as having signed with the Federal League. Wingo's contract, as signed today, is with the St. Louis National League team with which he played last season.

It is understood, however, that Wingo will be transferred to the Cincinnati team in exchange for money and players. One of these players is the Cuban, Armando Mariano, who jumped to the Federal League last year.

Braves Victories Have Helped Game

The victory of the Braves in two championships has done this for baseball: It has inspired the fans of every second division team with hope. In cities where there are chronic tail-enders, the bugs are saying: "Well, if the Braves were able to come from the tail end and win a World's championship, why can't we?" This argument hasn't been lost, and as a result the partisans of the most hopeless-looking team in the league is dreaming of a repeat next season. Which won't hurt baseball one iota."

LARRY MAKES A BET

It is indeed in the Mack machine where veterans and class abound and where the silent system is more in vogue. It looks as if Cleveland and Philadelphia would both benefit by the deal—something that rarely occurs in a baseball trade unless dissatisfaction with present conditions exists—in mind of the player exchanged.

Larry Lajoie, who goes back to the Athletics this season, has wagered a $50 suit of clothes with a Cleveland friend that he will hit 300 for Connie Mack this season.

WHEN LARRY JUMPED

Without a doubt, the Federals will be able to last next season, for they don't have to worry about getting the money to meet Walter Johnson's salary.

PRESIDENT IS CHOSEN

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 7.—Robert L. Blevitt, former baseball player and for several years a member of the Seattle Bar Association, was chosen president of the Northwestern League here today.

BAUMGARDNER SIGNED UP

Huntington, W. Va., Jan. 7.—Robert E. Hedges, President of the St. Louis American League club, came here last night and signed George Baumgardner, a pitcher, to play for his team. Baumgardner is said to have had offers from several Federal League clubs. The terms and length of the new contract were not divulged.

The Dayton News says: "Hans Lobert, who signed the three-year contract with the New York National League club, has been congratulated by the manager of the St. Louis team, Connie Mack. Lobert, who was the most valuable player in the National League last season, was sold to the St. Louis Federals."

Reds Would Give $10,000 For Docin

It is said the Reds have offered the Philadelphia club owners $10,000 apiece each for Catcher Red Docin. We suppose Docin's line of fancy vests will be thrown in. Here is a good natured chap who has a passion for fancy vests in the gayest hues.

To Peddle Stars

It is said that Owner Somers of the Cleveland team has planned to sell several of his stars in addition to Lajoie and that he will build up a team of youngsters. Liebold and Turner are slated to go according to rumors in the Forest City.

FORRESTERS INSTALL

Mr. Mark said he was pleased with the deal and asserted that everything was satisfactory to Lajoie. He admitted that he expected to use Lajoie at second base, a vacancy caused by the sale of Eddie Collins to the Chicago Americans.

Lajoie made his thousandth hit in the major leagues in the last game he played with the Cleveland club on Sept. 27 last. His average hitting record for 19 years in the major leagues is .318.

Russell Man Accused Of A Serious Offense

Fronton, Ohio, Jan. 7.—Walter Poutz, married a C. & O. employee of Russell was bound over to the grand jury of Greenup county, which convenes next week by Magistrate Coates of Russell. Tuesday on the charge of detaining a female person over 12 years of age without her consent.

He is accused of having detained Miss Alice Weher, the 17 year old daughter of Engineer Joe Weher, who was killed in the C. & O. accident at the Guyan river bridge two years ago.

At the death of the father, Poutz took the girl into his own home at Russell and has since provided for her, and it is said, that Tuesday he admitted having ini-proper relations with her though it was always with her full consent.

The trial and the accompanying disclosure of facts has caused quite a sensation in Russell and it is impossible to foretell the scenes that may take place when the grand jury meets next week.

In the meanwhile Poutz is out on bond, furnished by the step mother of the girl in the case, the widow of her father.

REPEAL CIVIL SERVICE CLAUSE

We do not possess that blind admiration for the civil service clause of the constitution that seems to characterize the Ohio State Journal, and we believe that the people of the state would be better off if it were eliminated. For our part we certainly would cordially support an amendment repealing the civil service farce and we hope that the present legislature will pave the way for the submission of such an amendment at the election this coming fall. We believe that it would be overwhelmingly adopted.

One reason for the faith that is in us is that there never has been and there never will be a political party that will respect civil service when it stands in the way of putting their own friends into office. They will scheme and twist and crook until they have evaded the law, as witness the action of the Ohio legislature this week when its Republican majority gleefully ducked the civil service provision that required their employees to come from the classified list. Such actions, and it should be said the Democrats would have done the same thing had positions been reversed, do much to bring law and order into disrespect, have a tendency to make the general public look upon laws which they disapprove as unjust and to be evaded if possible at their own convenience. It is unhappily true not only in the state but also in counties and cities where the alleged civil service laws obtain, in actual enforcement they do not amount to a hill of beans and there would be a far better state of public morals if the laws never existed.

Another thing is that we do not believe in building up an office holding class in this country. It is not a good thing for any government to have an aristocracy of people in government service with the door closed to others who may aspire to positions. It has a tendency to breed extravagance for another thing. Every new broom sweeps clean and every time a new man goes into office he does his utmost to lop off expense in order to make a record for himself. In time he gets careless and extravagant and useless salaries are added to his department which will only be done away with when a new man is put on the job.

It is an easy matter for farsighted dreamers to yell "reformation" at persons who doubt the efficacy of civil service as a cure all for political diseases, but it is a mighty lot more painful sight for Ohio to witness the evolutions now on at Columbus to evade a clause of the constitution of the state.

Let us have a civil service repeal amendment submitted. And let us bury it out of sight.

SUGGESTION FROM MARION.

Senator-elect Harding does not seem to grow enthusiastic over the claims of the "True Democracy" to soft berths in the political service and he mildly throws out a hint to that effect in Tuesday's issue of the Marion Star, his newspaper. After mentioning the vociferous efforts of the "True" Democrats to attract the attention of the chief dispenser at the pie counter, Senator Harding hands out this jolt to the noisy patriots:

"It's always possible that the new governor may select men for these new positions because of fitness, uninfluenced by their adherence to a party faction."

Of course it is "always possible" as Senator Harding suggests. It might be probable were Mr. Harding governor instead of Mr. Willis that there would be honest effort to get Republicans for office who had some other qualification than party work. It even might be possible that a bunch of disgruntled Democratic beelers with itch for office might be given the boot. But with Mr. Willis—well time alone can tell. His past history does not bear out the promise of anything out of the ordinary politician, lucky enough to land in the governor's chair. He has railed at his predecessors as spoilsmen and he has made professions of what he would do if he once landed in office in the way of organizing the public service for the public benefit, as he termed it. It remains to be seen what he will do when he gets the opportunity.

For our part we never did like these hundred to one bets, however.

The youthful auto driver, who makes a practice of blowing his horn from the time he comes into sight of his best girl's home till he fades away in the distance, may be making a decided hit thereby with his aforesaid best girl, but he isn't with her neighbors, says the Marion Star. But then it is also a good barometer for the neighbors as to the popularity of the girl next door. Seven different kinds of honkers, honking, seven gallant young callers, see! Have a heart and don't criticize.

POLLY AND HER PALS

Watching For Bargains

Watching for bargains is about the most interesting game that can be played. And it is the only game that a whole city full of people can play at one time.

Here you are, for example, the readers of this paper, thousand strong and here are all the stores lined up before you. Each store must clear its stocks. Every day each store is doing something different.

And every moment you are watching.

Suddenly this store comes out with a great shoe sale. The bargains are remarkable. Immediately thousands of you readers are interested in shoes and as quickly as the doors of that store are opened in you go hurrying, jostling and laughing good, naturally to get your share of the offerings that are being made.

On another page another store thrusts out its offer of another kind of merchandise—dresses, or underwear or furs and immediately another part of the great throng of the readers of this paper is hurrying there.

And the best part of the fun is watching for the unexpected sales. Some merchant who is going quietly along, discovers that he, too, is overstocked and perhaps for the first time in his life tries the remedy of advertising.

He lays his merchandise out on the great bargain counter of this newspaper's pages. He puts a remarkably low price upon it. And before his doors are opened many hours, the crowds are there and he discovers that the advertising method has also worked with him. You get new bargains, we get a new advertiser and he gets a new lease on life.

It is all wonderfully interesting when you play it as a game. Try it now. See what these advertising pages have in store for you.

DOC HOY IN DEEP WATER.

Sad to relate the Hon. Doc Hoy, representative from Jackson county, who has set himself up as the Moses to lead Republican patriots to the fatted calf by suspending the Ohio constitution, has gotten himself some unavoidable notoriety by his performances at a banquet over in Urbana. There was a jubilee banquet there of Republicans and Hoy made his appearance with the statement that he had come as the special representative of Edwin Jones, Republican state chairman, who was ill. There were many notable Republicans present and of course Doc made the effort of his lifetime to shine as an after-dinner orator. He shone all right, but it was such a dismal, gloomy sort of shine that the echoes of it are still reverberating throughout the Seventh congressional district.

And how did Doc shine? Why he told a choice variety of stories of a character that made a dozen lady waiters who were enjoying the festivities flee from the room in dismay. The Urbana Democrat says that "the first story caused surprise; the second astounded the hearers. The women fled. Rev. W. L. Guard, formerly of Urbana, but now of Tippecanoe City, was seated at the speaker's table, and he whispered to Toastmaster Denton to pass the word to Hoy that not only were ladies present, but gentlemen also. Denton got Hoy by the coat-tail, and that moment Hoy spied the departing ladies. He covered his confusion with a few meaningless repulses, and as the doors closed after the women, he asked: "Now is the coast clear?" Then he proceeded to tell another snatty story."

And this is the gentleman who aspires to leadership in the lower house of the legislature, who wants to blaze the trail for the Willis administration. It is not surprising that his preposterous idea of suspending the constitution in order to grub the offices was ruthlessly sat down upon by his colleagues. A few more such performances and Hoy will find himself in the president and general manager of the nuisance club of the legislature.

Why is it that every time a problem a little out of the ordinary routine confronts a state or city our public officials who were touted as world beaters when they sought office fall down on the job and set up a cry for experts? Would it not be a good idea to employ the experts in the first place?

Ironton is worked up again. This time it is the dance as she is being danced by the young things of the Iron City. Critics say that the Ironton version is demoralizing to the youthful mind. And the official dance master of the burg says it ain't so. And the dear young folks go right on dancing regardless.

Patrons Get Fine Calendars

Paper Is Forty-Six

The Times is indebted to Mrs. E. G. Nave for a copy of the San Diego Union, an enterprising newspaper of that city, which celebrates its forty-sixth anniversary with a special edition of the paper. The issue is profusely filled with special stories and cuts, boasting San Diego industrially and commercially, and formally ushering in the San Diego Exposition.

We Sell An Alarm Clock that is seven times better than the average. You may think this statement pretty strong, but here are the facts.

This clock runs a week and alarms a week with one winding. Others have to be wound every night. It is seven times less annoying, seven times more convenient. A touch of a button shuts off the alarm. IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush the Kidneys at once when Back-achy or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they slightly filter or strain only part of the waste and poison from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular or passage is attended by a sensation of swelling, get out about four ounces of Jade Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jade Salts is inexpensive and can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

Notable Season For Trades

This 1914-15 off season is going down in baseball records as one of the notable ones of all times for big trades. The selling of Larry Lajoie to the Philadelphia Americans by Cleveland adds another to the long list of big deals. Lajoie has for many years been identified with Cleveland baseball and for as many as five seasons he has been a detriment to the morale of the club, he had his faction since deposited in the silent system is more in vogue. It looks as if Cleveland and Philadelphia will both benefit by the deal—something that rarely occurs in a baseball town unless dissatisfaction with present conditions exists—in mind of the player exchanged.

Claim $50,000 Is Given To Players

Chicago, Jan. 7.—Club owners of the Federal League have paid out $30,000 in 1915 salary advances to major and minor league stars who deserted organized baseball for the Federal, according to a statement today by James A. Glimore, president of the Federal organization.

Pitcher Walter Johnson heads the list with $6,000 and others have been paid, sums ranging from $1,000 to $3,000.

Will Keep Baker

Washington, D. C., Jan. 7.—"There isn't a chance for me to get either Frank Baker or Rubie Oldring," said Manager Griffith yesterday, relative to rumors that he would obtain Baker and Oldring for the Senators. "I wish such yarns would not be written."

TO WINK AT NEW RULE

The opinion is rapidly gaining ground in baseball circles that the twenty-one player rule in the major leagues will never be seriously enforced. This regulation would require an enrollment somewhere along the following lines: pitchers, eight; catchers, 4; infielders, five; outfielders, 4. At the beginning of the 1913 season the American League club rosters contained the following number of players: Athletics, 29; Washington, 25; Cleveland, 26; Boston, 25; Chicago 31; Detroit, 30; New York, 25; St. Louis 20.

Will Be Guest Of Manager Stallings

Macon, Ga., Jan. 7.—If anyone thought for a moment that the loss of the World's Championship would have any effect on the friendship between George Stallings, manager of the Boston Braves, and John J. McGraw, of the defeated Giants, they were badly disappointed, for it has been announced that McGraw is coming soon for a visit at

The New York Sun says: "Leading players in 'All-American' teams for this year are Burns, Speaker and Cobb in the outfield; Duhon, Collins, Marquay and Baker in the infield; Archer and Schall, catchers and James, Rudolph, Alexander and W. Johnson, pitchers. There are 43 men on the 'All-American' teams and six Americans. That makes the National League one-thirteenth stronger than the American."

THREE YEAR CONTRACT

New York, Jan. 7.—Hans Lobert today signed a three-year contract with the New York National League club. Lobert, former Philadelphia third baseman, came to the Giants in a trade yesterday for Stock, Demaree, Adams and a cash consideration.

Reds Get Wingo

Cincinnati, Jan. 7.—According to a dispatch received today from Atlanta, Ga., Manager Charles Herzog of the Cincinnati baseball team has signed Catcher Ivy Wingo to a two-year contract. The terms not being given. The catcher has been reported as having signed with the Federal League. Wingo's contract, as signed today, is with the St. Louis National League team with which he played last season.

It is understood, however, that Wingo will be transferred to the Cincinnati team in exchange for money and players, one of these players is the Cuban, Armando Mansans, who jumped to the Federal League last year.

Braves Victories Have Helped Game

The victory of the Braves in two championships has done this for baseball: it has inspired the fans of every second division team with hope. In cities where there are chronic tailenders, the bugs are saying: "Well, if the Braves are able to come from the tail end and win a World's Championship, why can't we?" This argument hasn't been lost, and as a result the partisan of the most hopeless looking team in the league is dreaming of conquest next season. Which won't hurt baseball one iota."

LARRY MAKES A BET

Larry Lajoie, who goes back to the Athletics, has wagered a $50 suit of clothes with a Cleveland friend that he will hit 300 for Connie Mack this season.

WHEN LARRY JUMPED

Larry Lajoie, who was sold to the Athletics Wednesday in 1911, jumped from the Philadelphia National club to the newly formed Philadelphia American team, where he played under Connie Mack until June, 1912. On June 4, 1912, he played his first game with the Cleveland team. He was manager of the Cleveland team from 1913 to 1915, inclusive.

Mr. Mack said he was pleased with the deal and asserted that everything was satisfactory to Lajoie. He admitted that he expected to use Lajoie at second base, a vacancy caused by the sale of Eddie Collins to the Chicago Americans.

Lajoie made his three thousandth hit in the major leagues in the last game he played with the Cleveland club on Sept. 27 last. His average hitting record for 39 years in the major leagues is .318.

BAUMGARDNER SIGNED UP

Huntington, W. Va., Jan. 7.—Robert E. Hodges, President of the St. Louis American League Club, came here last night and signed George Baumgardner, a pitcher, to play for his team. Baumgardner is said to have had offers from several Federal League clubs. The terms and length of the new contract were not divulged.

WAS OFFERED BONUS

Manager Herzog of the Reds is making an effort to persuade Bishop Dwyer of the St. Louis team to stick to the National League. Dwyer was offered a bonus of $1,000 if he joined the St. Louis Federals.

Congratulated By Rickey

The Dayton News says: "Branch Rickey, who is to be the new manager of the Cardinals, has been given a $10,000 bonus by the St. Louis club. The player received the offer because of his success in managing the Boston Americans last year. Rickey has been given a good start out of the Federal League."

REPEAL CIVIL SERVICE CLAUSE

We do not possess that blind admiration for the civil service clause of the constitution that seems to characterize the Ohio State Journal, and we believe that the people of the state would be better off if it were eliminated. For our part we certainly would cordially support an amendment repealing the civil service clause and we hope that the present legislature will pave the way for the submission of such an amendment at the election this coming fall. We believe that it would be overwhelmingly adopted.

One reason for the faith that is in us is that there never has been and there never will be a political party that will respect civil service when it stands in the way of putting their own friends into office. They will scheme and twist and crook until they have evaded the law, as witness the action of the Ohio legislature this week when its Republican majority gleefully ducked the civil service provision that required their employees to come from the classified list. Such actions, and it should be said the Democrats would have done the same thing had positions been reversed, do much to bring law and order into disrespect, have a tendency to make the general public look upon laws which they disapprove as unjust and to be evaded if possible at their own convenience. It is unhappily true not only in the state but also in counties and cities where the alleged civil service laws obtain. In actual enforcement they do not amount to a hill of beans and there would be a far better state of public morals if the laws never existed.

Another thing is that we do not believe in building up an office holding class in this country. It is not a good thing for any government to have an attorney of people in government service with the door closed to others who may aspire to positions. It has a tendency to breed extravagance for another thing. Every new broom sweeps clean and every time a new man goes into office he does his utmost to lop off expense in order to make a record for himself. In time he gets careless and extravagant and useless salaries are added to his department which will only be done away with when a new man is put on the job.

It is an easy matter for fireside dreamers to yell "reactionary" at persons who doubt the efficacy of civil service as a cure-all for political diseases, but it is mighty lot more painful sight for Ohio to witness the evolutions now on at Columbus to evade a clause of the constitution of the state.

Let us have a civil service repeal amendment submitted. And let us bury it out of sight.

SUGGESTION FROM MARION.

Senator-elect Harding does not seem to grow enthusiastic over the claims of the "True Democracy" to soft berths in the political service and he mildly throws out a hint to that effect in Tuesday's issue of the Marion Star, his newspaper. After mentioning the valiant efforts of the "True" Democrats to attract the attention of the chief dispenser at the pie counter, Senator Harding hands out this jolt to the noisy patriots:

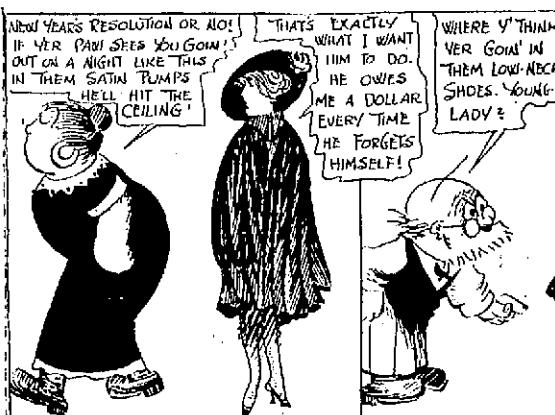

"It's always possible that the new governor may select men for these new positions because of fitness, uninfluenced by their adherence to a party faction."

Of course, it is "always possible" as Senator Harding suggests. It might be probable were Mr. Harding governor instead of Mr. Willis that there would be honest effort to get Republicans for office who had some other qualification than party work. It even might be possible that a bunch of disengaged Democratic beehives with itch for office might be given the boot. But with Mr. Willis—well time alone can tell. His past history does not bear out the promise of anything out of the ordinary politicking, lucky enough to land in the governor's chair. He has railed at his predecessors as spoilsmen and he has made professions of what he would do if he once landed in office in the way of organizing the public service for the public benefit, as he termed it. It remains to be seen what he will do when he gets the opportunity.

For our part we never did like these hundred to one bets, however.

The youthful auto driver, who makes a practice of blowing his horn from the time he comes into sight of his best girl's home till he fades away in the distance, may be making a decided hit there by with his adored best girl, but he isn't with her neighbors, says the Marion Star. But then it is also a good barometer for the neighbors as to the popularity of the girl next door. Seven different kinds of honkers, honking, seven gallant young callers, seem to have a heart and don't criticize.

POLLY AND HER PALS

Watching For Bargains

Watching for bargains is about the most interesting game that can be played. And it is the only game that a whole city full of people can play at one time.

Here you are, for example, the readers of this paper—thousand strong and here are all the stores lined up before you. Each store must clear its stocks. Every day each store is doing something different.

And every moment you are watching.

Suddenly this store comes out with a great shoe sale. The bargains are remarkable. Immediately thousands of you readers are interested in shoes and as quickly as the doors of that store are opened, in you go hurrying, jostling and laughing good-naturedly to get your share of the offerings that are being made.

On another page another store thrusts out its offer of another kind of merchandise—dresses, or underwear, or furs and immediately another part of the great throng of the readers of this paper is hurrying there.

And the best part of the fun is watching for the unexpected sales. Some merchant who is going quietly along, discovers that he, too, is overstocked and perhaps for the first time in his life tries the remedy of advertising.

He lays his merchandise out on the great bargain counter of this newspaper's pages. He puts a remarkably low price upon it. And before his doors are opened many hours, the crowds are there and he discovers that the advertising method has also worked with him. You get new bargains, we get a new advertiser and he gets a new lease on life.

It is all wonderfully interesting when you play it as a game. Try it now. See what these advertising pages have in store for you.

DOC HOY IN DEEP WATER.

Sad to relate the Hon. Doc Hoy, representative from Jackson county, who has set himself up as the Moses to lead Republican patriots to the fatted calf by suspending the Ohio constitution, has gotten himself some unenviable notoriety by his performances at a banquet over in Urbana. There was a jubilee banquet there of Republicans and Hoy made his appearance with the statement that he had come as the special representative of Edwin Jones, Republican state chaplain, who was ill. There were many notable Republicans present and of course Hoy made the effort of his lifetime to shine as an after dinner orator. He shone all right, but it was such a dismal, gloomy sort of a shine that the echoes of it are still reverberating throughout the Seventh congressional district.

And how did Doc shine? Why he told a choice variety of stories of a character that made a dozen lady waiters who were enjoying the festivities flee from the room in dismay. The Urbana Democrat says that "the first story caused surprise; the second astounded the hearers. The women fled. It was W. L. Guard, formerly of Urbana, but now of Tippecanoe City, was seated at the speaker's table, and he whispered to Tom Thumb Denton to pass the word to Hoy that not only were ladies present, but gentlemen also. Denton got Hoy by the coat-tail, and that moment Hoy spied the departing ladies. He covered his confusion with a few meaningless remarks, and as the doors closed after the women, he asked: "Now's the coast clear?" Then he proceeded to tell another gnatly story."

And this is the gentleman who aspires to leadership in the lower house of the legislature, who wants to blaze the trail for the Willis administration. It is not surprising that his preposterous idea of suspending the constitution in order to grab the offices was ruthlessly sat down upon by his colleagues. A few more such performances and Hoy will find himself as the president and general manager of the nuisance club of the legislature.

Why is it that every time a problem a little out of the ordinary routine confronts state or city our public officials who were touted as world beaters when they sought office fall down on the job and set up a cry for experts? Would it not be a good idea to employ the experts in the first place?

Ironon is worked up again. This time it is the dance as she is being danced by the young things of the Iron City. Critics say that the Ironon version is demoralizing to the youthful mind. And the official dance master of the burg says it ain't so. And the dear young folks go right on dancing regardless.

OVERHEAD CROSSING ORDINANCE IS PASSED; NEW PLUMBING BILL

The ordinance, declaring it necessary to construct the Lawton Run viaduct or overhead crossing between Young and New Eighth was unanimously passed by city council, Wednesday night, as had been predicted.

The ordinance was up for its third and final reading and no opposition was raised against its passage. Mr. Charles Wilson had the honor of making the motion to adopt the ordinance. Rules were suspended and a new ordinance providing for a $42,000 bond issue, covering the city's proportion of the cost of the structure, was also adopted. The bonds $4 in number to bear 5 per cent interest.

Mr. Westphal moved the adoption of the bond ordinance which will offset the old Kendall avenue subway bond issue. So long as these remain undisturbed and held by the sinking fund trustees no harm is done but if in a few years the board would sell them to outside parties the city would be paying 5 per cent on each issue or 10 per cent on both.

The passage of the overhead crossing ordinance proved a source of much satisfaction to Mayor Frick, who was present. To him it meant the fulfillment of a plan advocated just as soon as he became the head of the present administration. It was exactly a year ago to the day that he sent his first official communication to council and among others recommended that such a structure be built.

Waterworks Debt
Is Discussed

The mayor's letter to the service director recommending that immediate steps be taken relative to meeting the bonded water works debt of the city and taking care of the operating expenses by installing a meter system at manufacturing plants, mercantile establishments, etc., for a period of one year awakened council to the necessity of early action.

Judge Osborn, who in the absence of Vice Mayor Cook, presided over the meeting, regarded this as a matter of utmost importance although he differed with the mayor as to the time required to work out a plan, he not believing it would take a whole year.

Mr. Wilson felt that it was a question to be carefully considered and in order that council could act more intelligently in the matter urged that it be taken up at an adjourned session. Upon his motion it was decided to hold this session Friday evening.

Chairman Schumank of the finance committee, presented resolutions for a new $10,000 sewer bond issue for the purpose of extending the sewerage system of the city. The issue contemplates also covering the extension of the Sixth ward sewer in the North End and the connecting link of the Cecil S. Miller sewer in the Hilltop district.

The chair declared these were two necessary parts of the system and but for this he would have opposed the bond issue. He said the sewer problem was one that now had to be met in Portsmouth and he suggested that the engineers get busy and prepare some general plan so that it could be dispensed of this year. The bond problem, too, he said, has become a serious one but as the projected sewers are needed and quite a section of the city is benefited by them he felt nothing was lost.

Mr. Shump inquired if it would be necessary first to submit the plans for the two sewers to the state board of health, reminding his colleagues of the emphatic declarations of a representative of that body on a recent visit here. City Solicitor McCall assured him that these were merely storm sewers and that failure to submit plans to the state board would not affect the bond ordinance but the general plan of course will have to be submitted for approval.

Solicitor McCall reported that an ordinance providing for a city plumbing inspector and board of examiners and to regulate the plumbing business had been submitted to him and that Attorney Clint Scarl was present to explain it. The solicitor felt though that the proper procedure would be to refer it to the council ordinance committee. He was supported in this view by the chair who felt that the matter should first be threshed out by the committee and not occupy council's time with the details. Mr. Scarl, therefore, was not granted a hearing and he and the many master and journeymen plumbers present left the room.

Will Standardize
Plumbing Work

The purpose of the tentative ordinance is to increase the powers of the board of health by making its regulations more effective by putting into its hands the appointment of examiners and making violations a misdemeanor. It is expected to have the effect of standardizing the plumbing work and putting an end to the indiscriminate water and sewer taps so often complained of. The movement has the endorsement of both the Master Plumbers' Association and Journeyman Plumbers' Union.

The proposed ordinance would have the board of examiners consist of five persons to be appointed by the health board as follows:

the city plumbing inspector, two journeymen plumbers and two master plumbers. The city plumbing inspector shall be secretary of the board. The members of the board shall hold office for a period of two years, except the inspector who shall hold said office during the time he holds the office of inspector. Each member of the board of examiners shall receive four dollars per month salary.

A petition from Jeff Brown, A. Pugatzer, H. T. Hatton and others, asking for a sanitary sewer between Chillicothe and Gay and Tenth and Eleventh streets, presented by Mr. Westphal was received and filed for future consideration.

Mr. Moeller presented a petition from Staiger Bros., asking the privilege of locating ten or more waste paper receptacles on street corners for a period of five years, the receptacles to be of artistic design, with glass sides and lighted by electricity without any expense to the city with the exception of removing paper from them once weekly. The application was referred to the street committee.

The monthly schedule of $106.45 was allowed.

Mayor Frick announced the re-appointment of Henry Scott as a member of the civil service commission for period of one year and upon motion of Mr. Schumank the appointment was confirmed.

The mayor said George M. Appel had requested him not to permit his name to go before council for confirmation as member of the board of sinking fund trustees until he had first conferred with his associates of that body. Mr. Appel, he said, had been serving in that capacity for the past twelve years and was disposed to secure his release and permit someone else to be named in his place.

Service Director Gergens announced that he now possessed a list of the unpaved streets of the city, which he would be glad to submit at any time. He felt it was about time for council to get busy and determine what streets are to be paved this year.

Mr. Gergens also called attention to the danger of trespassers falling into the settling basin at the filtration plant and felt that some protection should be provided for children, either a good hand railing or a wire fence for in the event of accidents the city would be liable for damage. Referred to water and light committee.

The director submitted an estimate of $3,157.70 for the proposed extension of the Sixth ward sewer past the Portsmouth Paving Brick company's plant.

Safety Director Luka submitted the annual reports of the fire and police chief of the city but said he expected to confer with the council committee before further taking up the recommendations contained in the reports.

These were read and listened to with great interest by the members.

Resolutions were passed transferring various funds, such as $262.20 unexpended balance of the Thirteenth street improvement to make up a deficit on the Eighteenth street paving job, $7,427.18 from various streets to the sinking fund, $2,799 to the general fund.

$1,677 to the service fund, $1,

$457.45 from the fire fund to the sinking fund, $500 from the general fund to the public health fund.

The latter fund had been overdrawn although Clerk

Gableman showed that the health board had exercised more economy than during the preceding year, spending $3700 as against $4100.

Chairman Wilson, of the hospital committee, reported that a thorough examination of the council records failed to show that Architect Arthur Devoss had ever been authorized to draw plans for a proposed addition to Hospital hospital. He had been given an audience and was instructed to prepare plans for approval but no contract was ever entered in.

The committee, he said, would therefore decline to make any recommendation that he be paid.

He felt, though, that council was an injury recently sustained by

GREEK XMAS IS OBSERVED TODAY

Toasts were drunk to the heroes of Athens and other notable Grecian cities. Thursday when the Portsmouth contingent of Greeks celebrated their Christmas Day.

It is not their custom to exchange gifts on this glad occasion, but they call on each other and drink wine to the notable men, who brought fame and undying glory to their native land.

Throughout America today no doubt Greeks lifted their glasses in commemoration of noted Greeks.

On Thursday January 14 the Greek New Year will be celebrated by local Greeks. This is the day on which they have big feasts and recall what has transpired during the year.

Chris Malavazos stated Wednesday night that despite the war Greece would no doubt celebrate these two events in enthusiastic manner. Mr. Malavazos entertained a number of Greeks at his home on Fifth street today and the guest list included a number of Americans, who called to enjoy the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Malavazos.

WATER TANK COLLAPSES, MAY BUY FROM CITY

An old water tank of about 8,000 gallons capacity at the Curlyle Brick Company's plant, collapsed Wednesday night, causing a loss estimated at $250.

The tank was an old affair, having been in use for the past ten years, and the company had expected to repair it. Now that it is wrecked the company is considering taking city water.

It has the motiwill be determined upon.

The collapse of the tank does not interfere with the running of the brick plant.

And the members will help in the popping, which will be done on the big steel range. A bushel or more of apples have been provided for and unless all signs fail, the attendance tonight will reach pretty close to the century mark.
